

Eric M. Feltham

Permanent: 535 Ocean Street – Hyannis, MA 02601 Mailing: 406 3rd Avenue – West Haven, CT 06516
eric.m.feltham@gmail.com — (508) 523-9898

EDUCATION

University of Massachusetts at Amherst Commonwealth Honors College Amherst, MA

- B.A., Economics; B.A., Philosophy, Summer 2013
- GPA: 3.9 — Magna Cum Laude
- Honors Thesis: “Unconscious Attention? Inattentional Consciousness? Examining the Relationship Between Attention and Phenomenal Consciousness”

Notable Coursework:

— Microeconomics of Coordination and Conflict (PhD. Seminar), Econometrics, Game Theory, Differential Equations, Linear Algebra, Mathematical Biology, Philosophy of Mind (PhD. Seminar), Introduction to Biostatistics (M.S. level)

ACADEMIC HONORS

Phi Beta Kappa

Commonwealth Honors College Scholar with Greatest Distinction

- Awarded based upon GPA and quality of honors thesis

Offered admission for postgraduate study at Cambridge University (Cambridge, UK)

- Declined Michaelmas term 2014 admission for financial reasons

Summer Institute for Training in Biostatistics at Emory University

- Competitive admission to an NIH funded program (June 8 to July 15, 2014)
- Completed a graduate-level course in Biostatistics and a course in SAS programming
- Performed data analysis and created presentations for assigned case studies

SKILLS

- Computer: MS Office, Excel, Stata, SAS, Matlab (basic), Mathematica (basic), L^AT_EX
- Language: French (basic)

ADVOCACY & WORK EXPERIENCE

Schiller Affective Neuroscience Lab, Mount Sinai Icahn School of Medicine –

New York, NY; Research Volunteer (Mar. 2014–Present)

- Independently run clinical trials working with human subjects investigating the affects of a pharmacological agent on memory formation and persistence
- Analyze experimental data using computer software packages
- Involved as coauthor on the academic publication from the study

Students for a Just and Stable Future – Boston, MA; Campaign Coordinator (Sept. 2010–May 2011)

- Spoke at public events to represent the organization
- Helped to coordinate a state level campaign involving community members from around the state and students on college campuses throughout Massachusetts
- Worked with a team of students and community members on climate policy relating to Massachusetts state legislation

Better Future Project – Boston, MA; Team Leader (June 2010–Aug. 2010)

- Lead a team of four members and coordinated their roles relating to media, events, and housing for the team as part of New England Climate Summer Internship
- Organized events discussing the impacts of economic and environmental policy